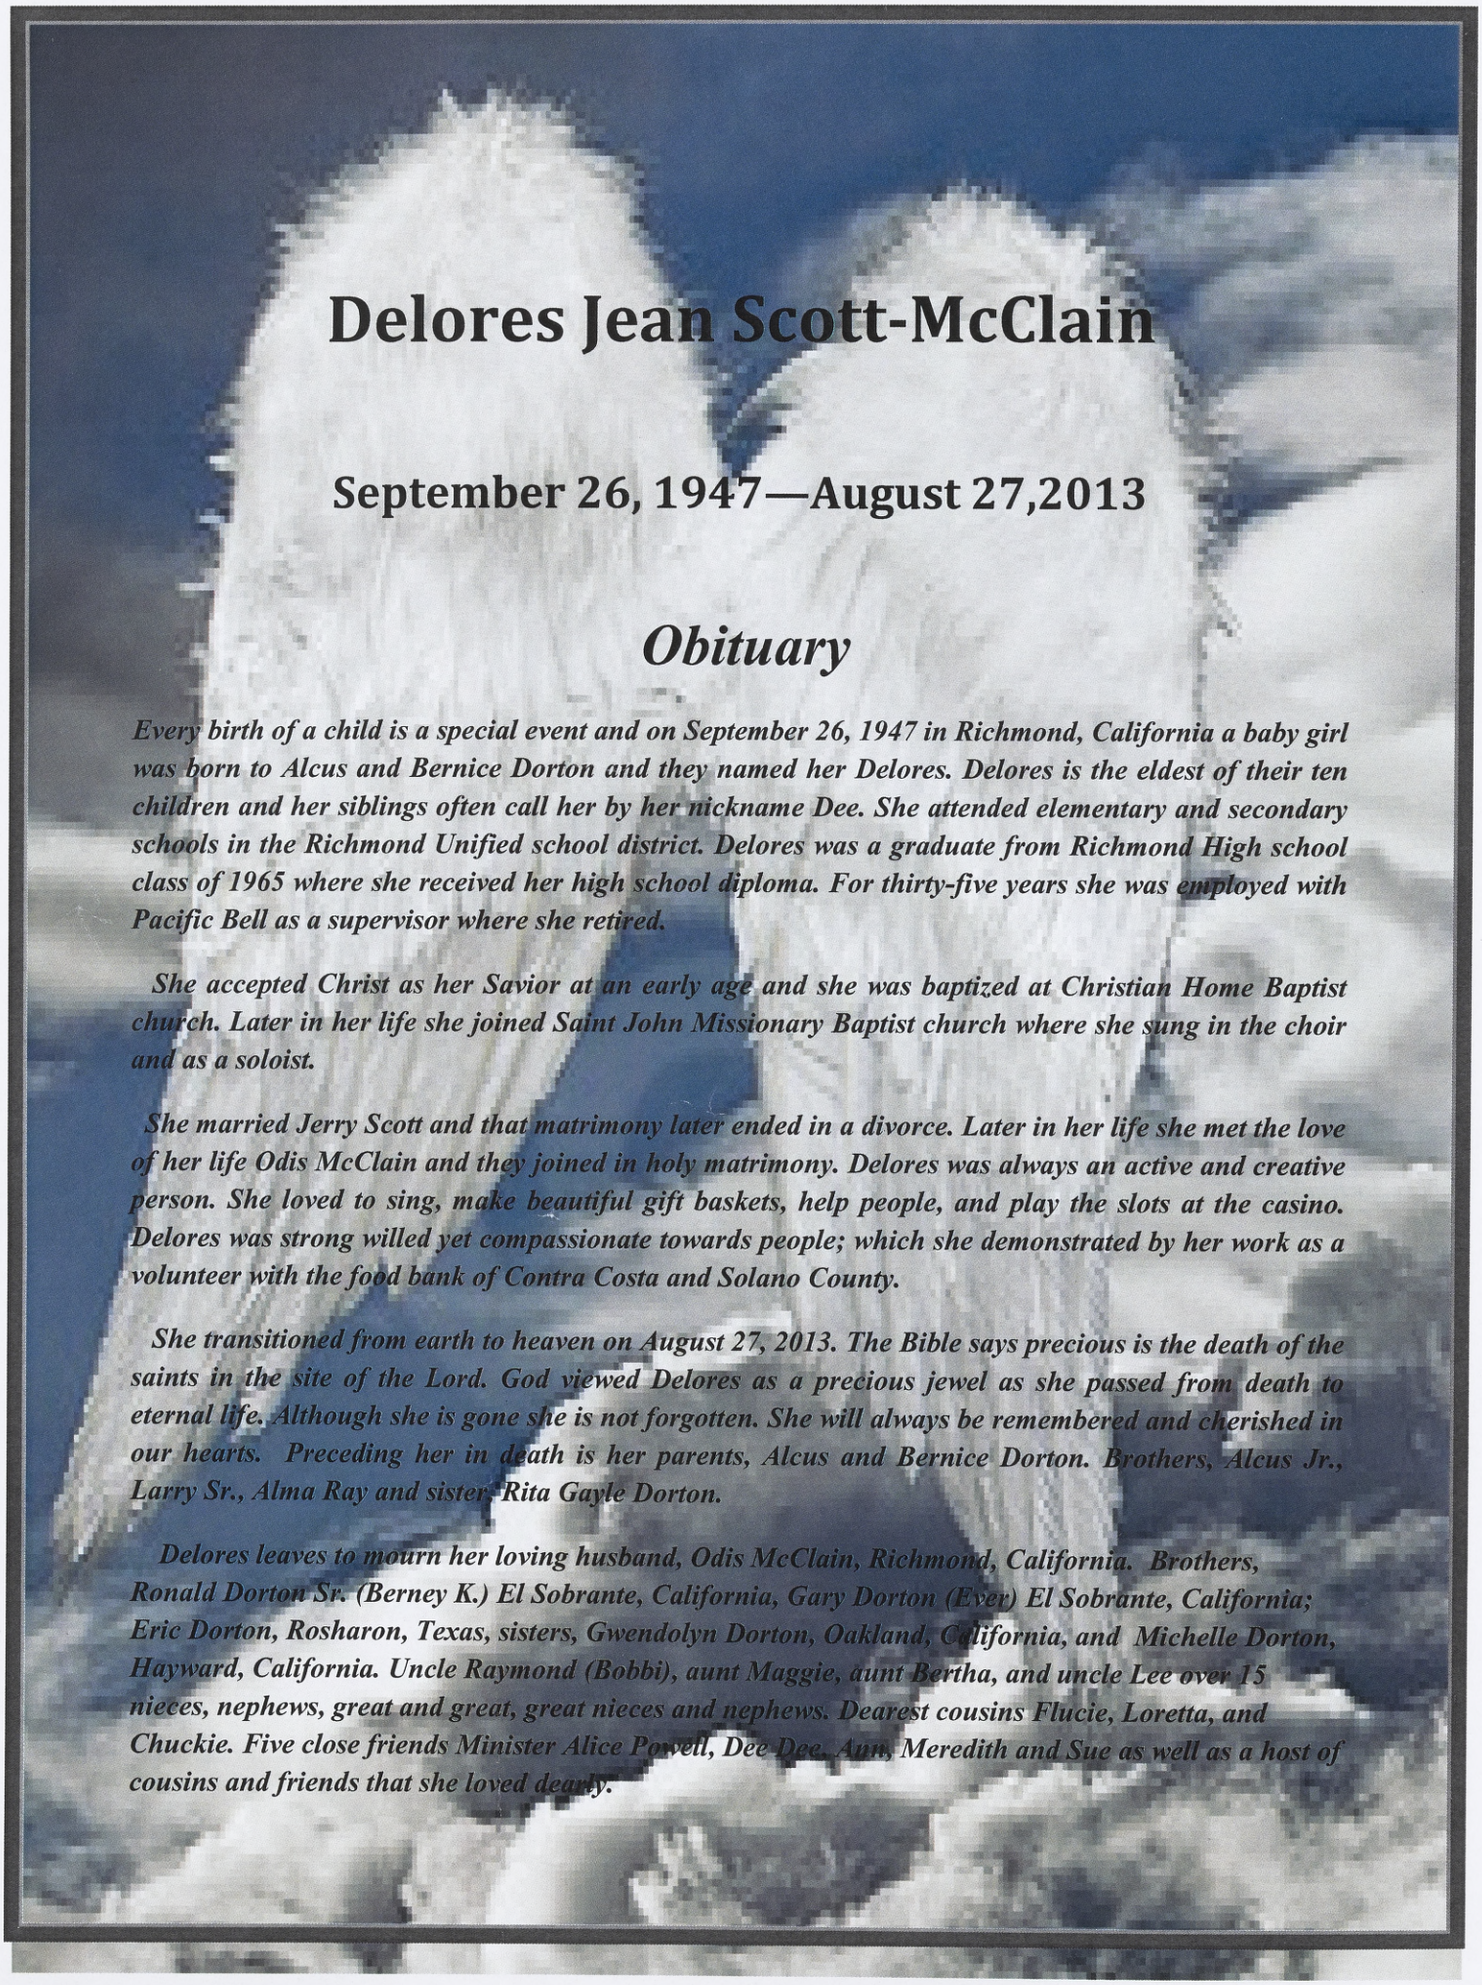
Homegoing Celebration for Delores Jean Scott-McClain

Sunrise
September 26, 1947

Sunset
August 27, 2013

"Precious in the sight of the lord is the death of his saints."
Psalm 116:15 KJV

Friday September 6th, 2013 – 11:00 a.m.
North Richmond Missionary Baptist Church
1427 Fred Jackson Way
Richmond, California 94801
Officiating: Derek Jackson



Delores Jean Scott-McClain

September 26, 1947—August 27,2013

Obituary

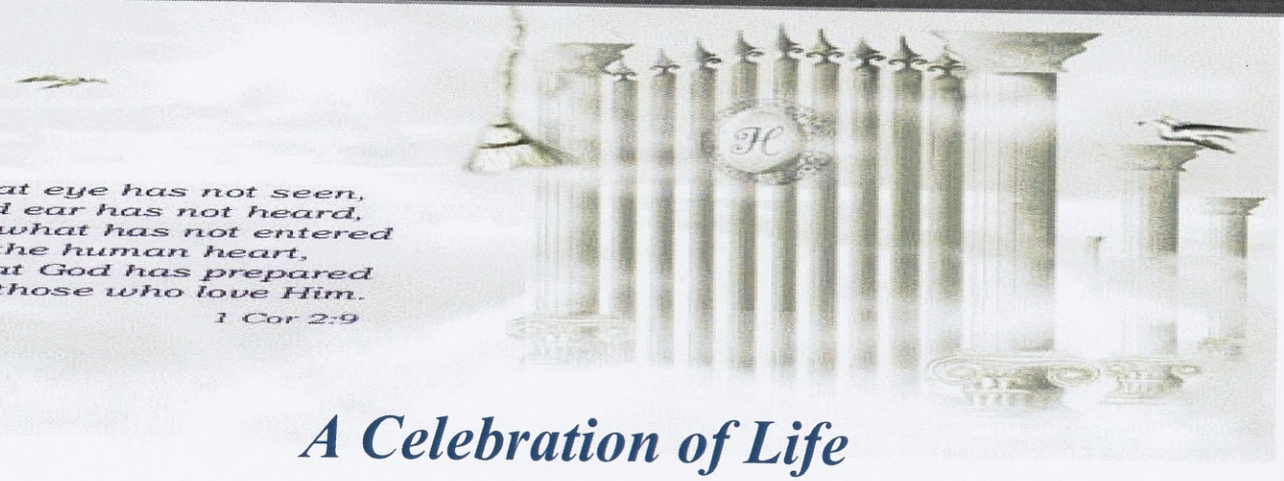
Every birth of a child is a special event and on September 26, 1947 in Richmond, California a baby girl was born to Alcus and Bernice Dorton and they named her Delores. Delores is the eldest of their ten children and her siblings often call her by her nickname Dee. She attended elementary and secondary schools in the Richmond Unified school district. Delores was a graduate from Richmond High school class of 1965 where she received her high school diploma. For thirty-five years she was employed with Pacific Bell as a supervisor where she retired.

She accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age and she was baptized at Christian Home Baptist church. Later in her life she joined Saint John Missionary Baptist church where she sung in the choir and as a soloist.

She married Jerry Scott and that matrimony later ended in a divorce. Later in her life she met the love of her life Odis McClain and they joined in holy matrimony. Delores was always an active and creative person. She loved to sing, make beautiful gift baskets, help people, and play the slots at the casino. Delores was strong willed yet compassionate towards people; which she demonstrated by her work as a volunteer with the food bank of Contra Costa and Solano County.

She transitioned from earth to heaven on August 27, 2013. The Bible says precious is the death of the saints in the site of the Lord. God viewed Delores as a precious jewel as she passed from death to eternal life. Although she is gone she is not forgotten. She will always be remembered and cherished in our hearts. Preceding her in death is her parents, Alcus and Bernice Dorton. Brothers, Alcus Jr., Larry Sr., Alma Ray and sister, Rita Gayle Dorton.

Delores leaves to mourn her loving husband, Odis McClain, Richmond, California. Brothers, Ronald Dorton Sr. (Berney K.) El Sobrante, California, Gary Dorton (Ever) El Sobrante, California; Eric Dorton, Rosharon, Texas, sisters, Gwendolyn Dorton, Oakland, California, and Michelle Dorton, Hayward, California. Uncle Raymond (Bobbi), aunt Maggie, aunt Bertha, and uncle Lee over 15 nieces, nephews, great and great, great nieces and nephews. Dearest cousins Flucie, Loretta, and Chuckie. Five close friends Minister Alice Powell, Dee Dee, Ann, Meredith and Sue as well as a host of cousins and friends that she loved dearly.



What eye has not seen,
and ear has not heard,
and what has not entered
the human heart,
what God has prepared
for those who love Him.
1 Cor 2:9

A Celebration of Life

Officiating

Minister Derek Jackson

Order of Service

Processional.....Minister & Family

The Holy Scriptures

Old Testament Scripture — Psalm 23

New Testament — John 14:1-6

Prayer.....Missionary Lennie Brown

Solo.....Trigere Broussard

Acknowledgements & Condolences.....Berney Dorton

Reading of Obituary.....Berney Dorton

Solo..... Terry Brown

Poem..... Missionary Lennie Brown

Solo..... Andre Dorton

Special Expressions

-1 minutes-

Eulogy.....Minister Derek Jackson

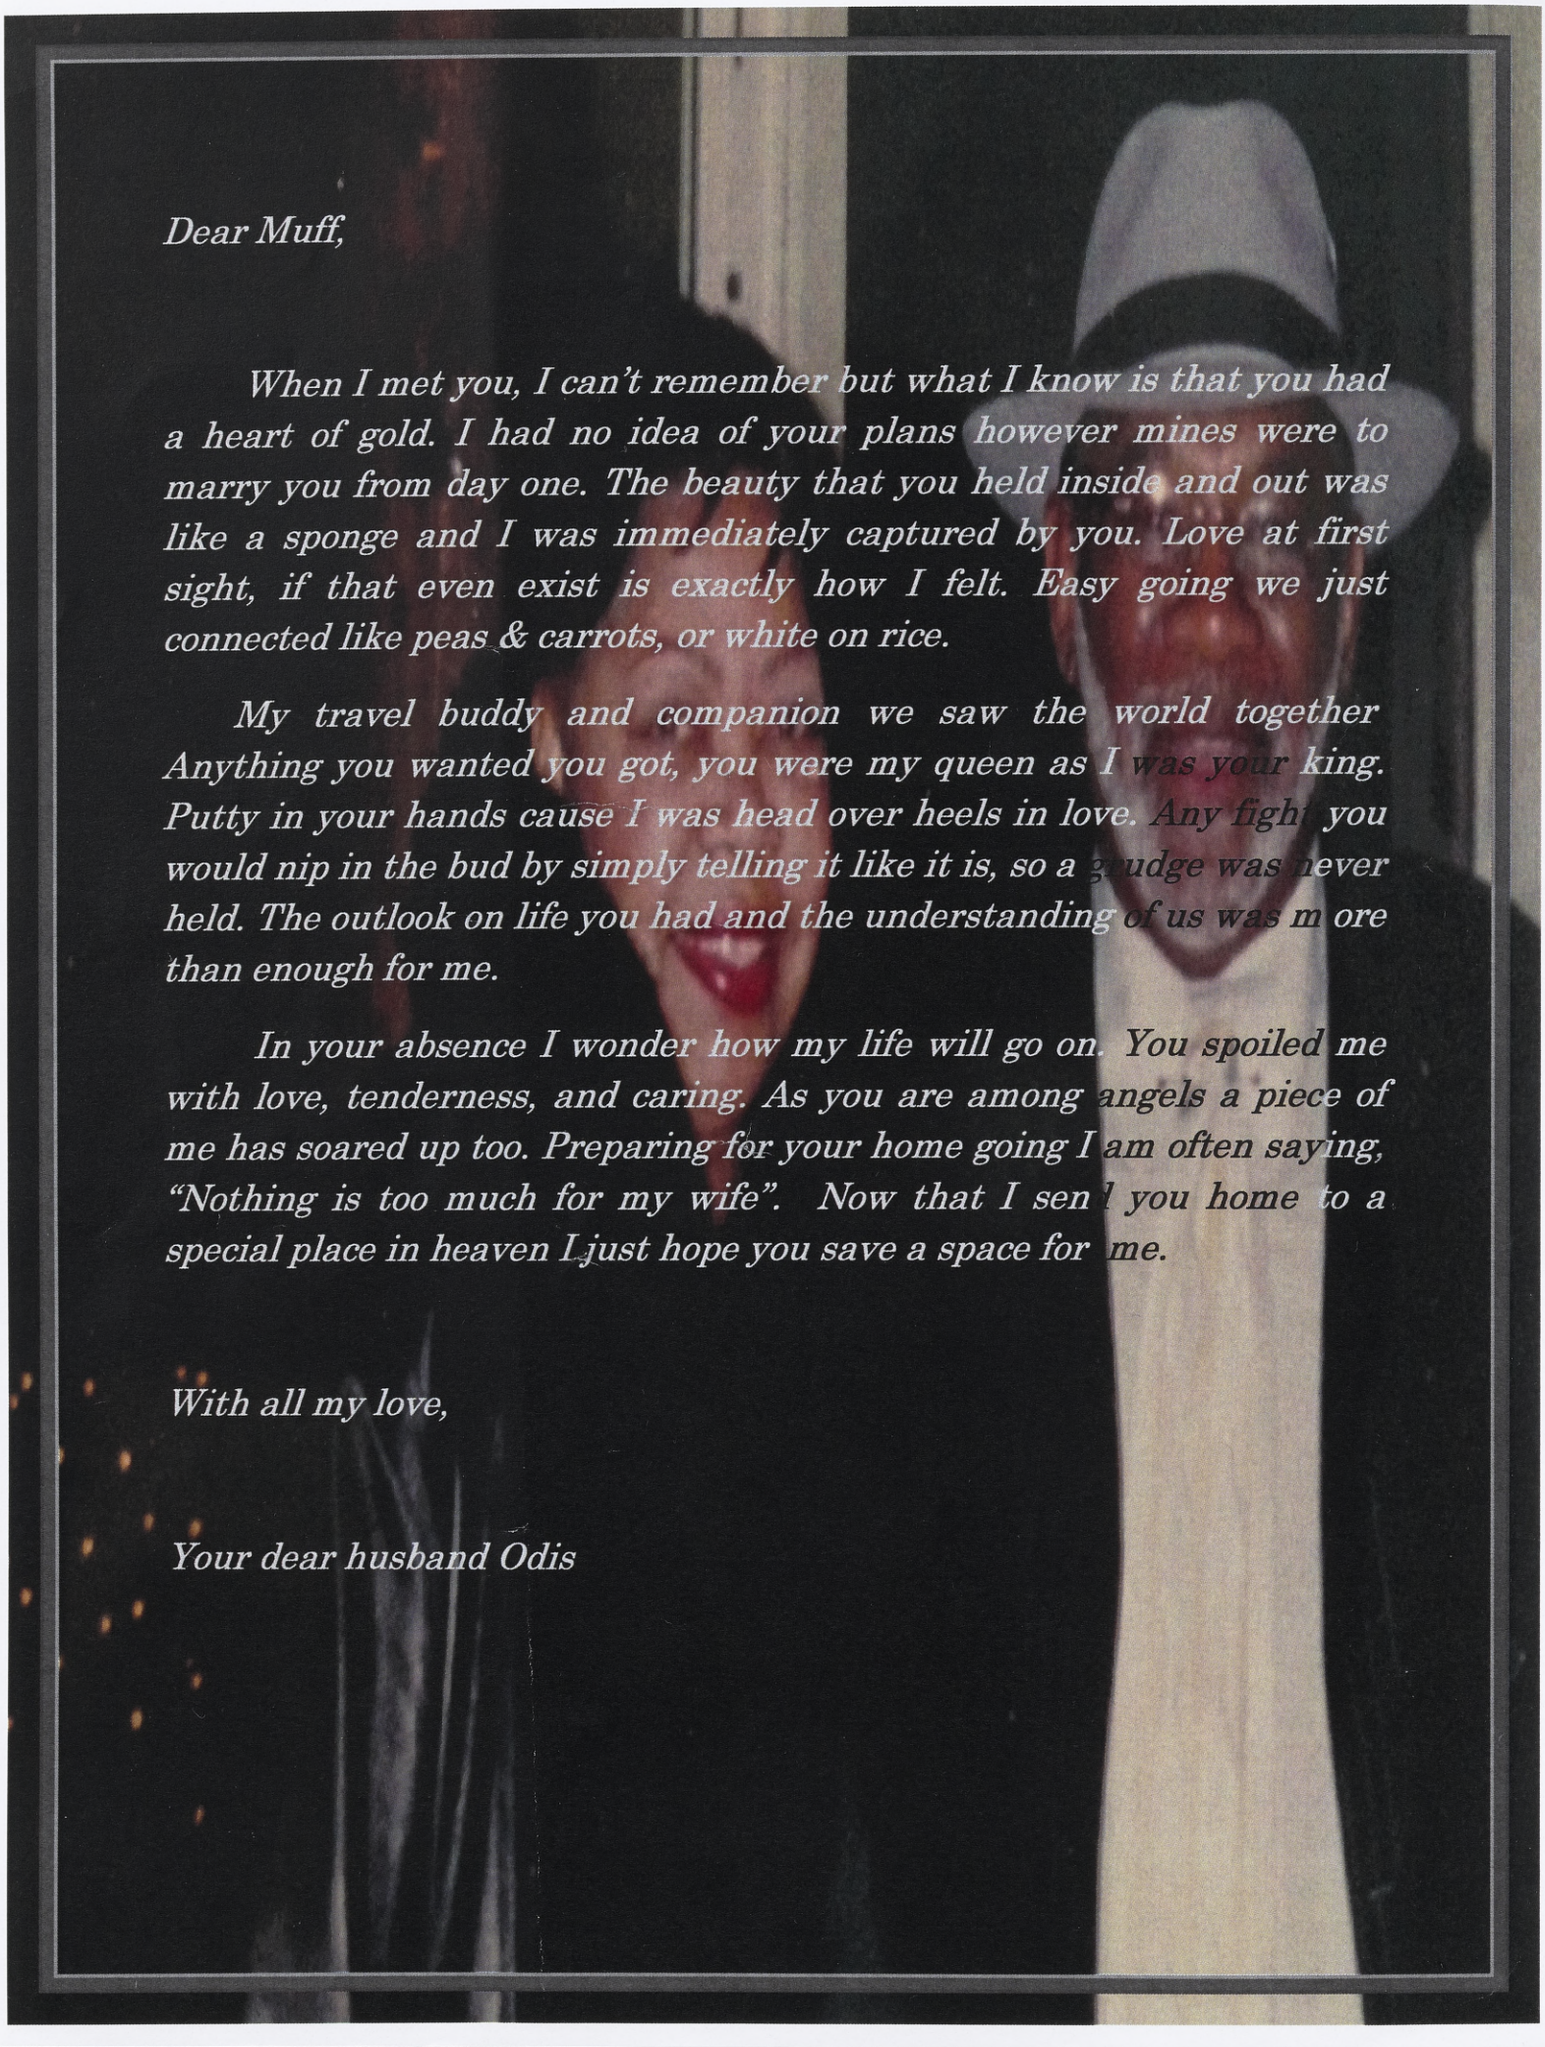
Parting Views

Interment

Rolling Hills Memorial Park

4100 Hilltop Drive

Richmond Calif.



Dear Muff,

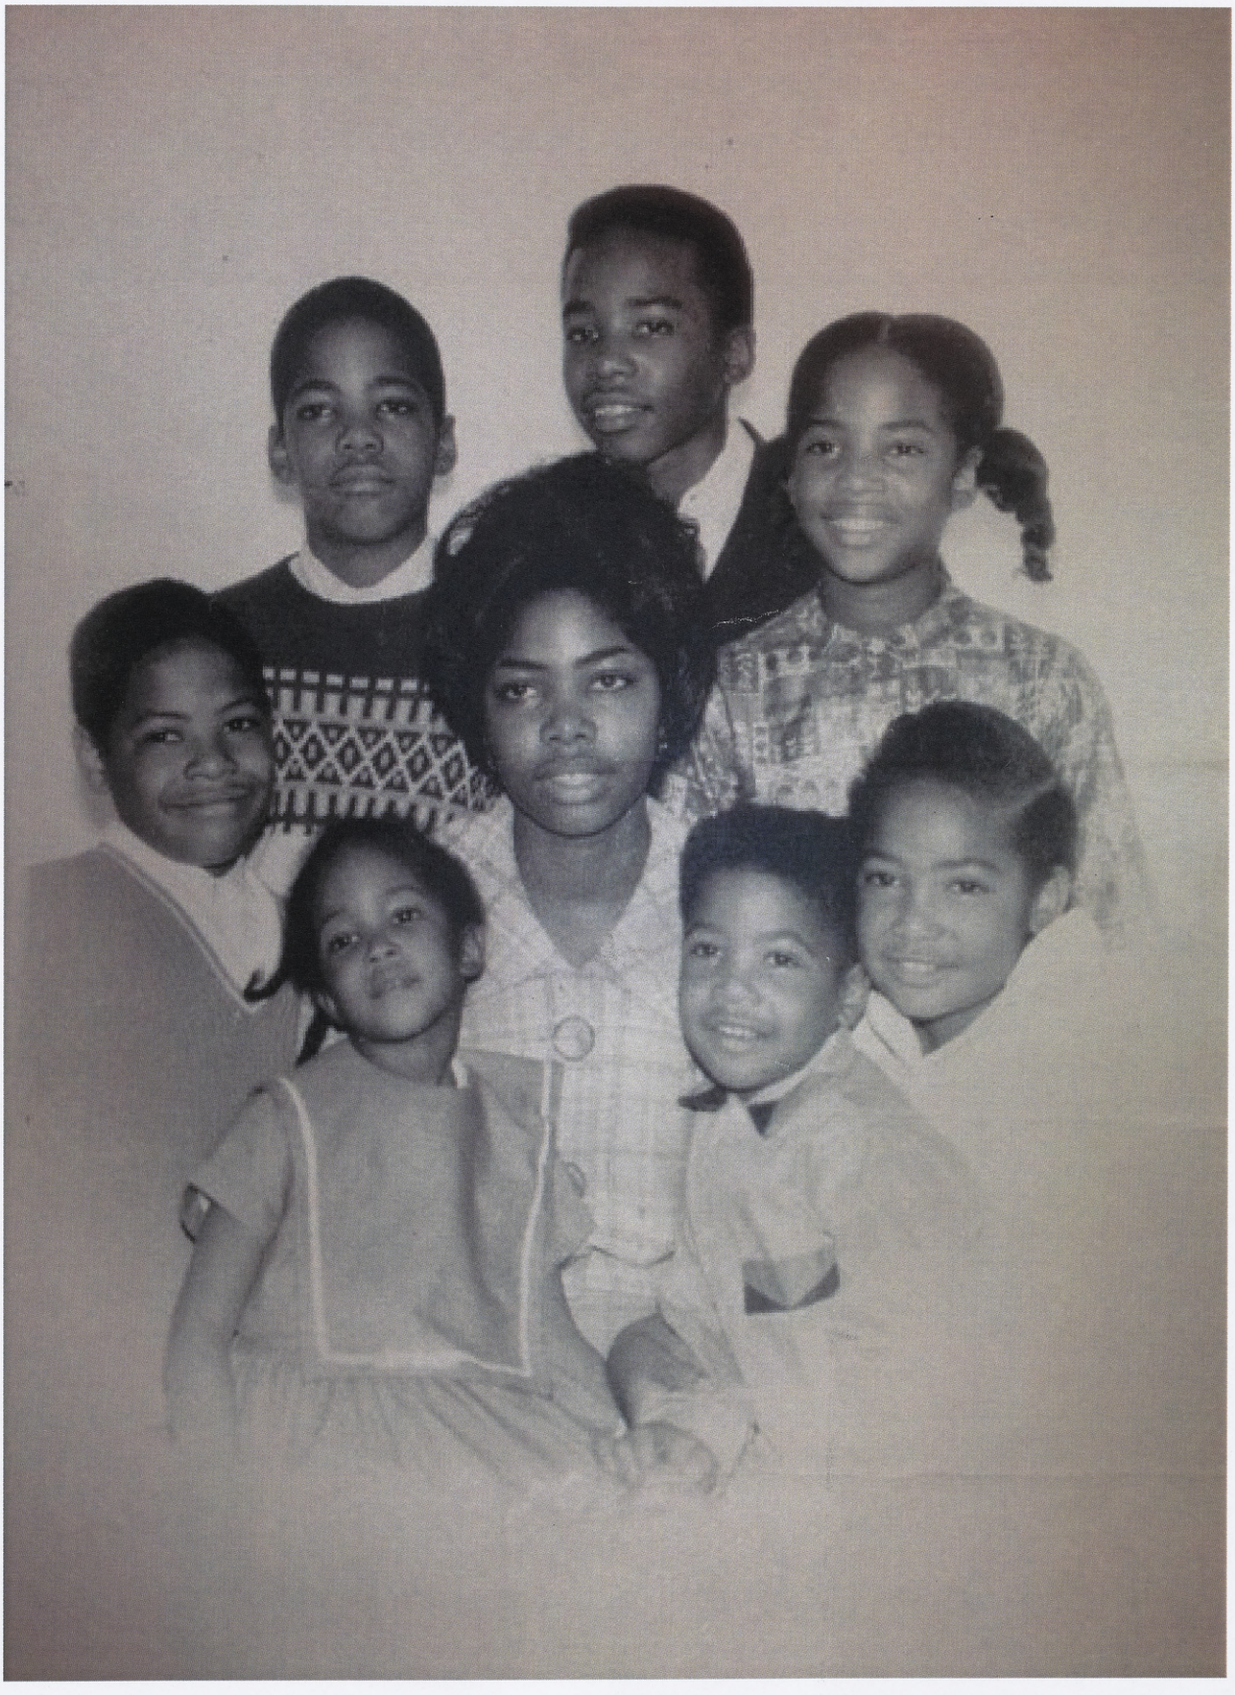
When I met you, I can't remember but what I know is that you had a heart of gold. I had no idea of your plans however mines were to marry you from day one. The beauty that you held inside and out was like a sponge and I was immediately captured by you. Love at first sight, if that even exist is exactly how I felt. Easy going we just connected like peas & carrots, or white on rice.

My travel buddy and companion we saw the world together Anything you wanted you got, you were my queen as I was your king. Putty in your hands cause I was head over heels in love. Any fight you would nip in the bud by simply telling it like it is, so a grudge was never held. The outlook on life you had and the understanding of us was more than enough for me.

In your absence I wonder how my life will go on. You spoiled me with love, tenderness, and caring. As you are among angels a piece of me has soared up too. Preparing for your home going I am often saying, "Nothing is too much for my wife". Now that I send you home to a special place in heaven I just hope you save a space for me.

With all my love,

Your dear husband Odis



Red & White Fleet
ALCATRAZ

Active Pallbearers

Andre' Dorton
Bruce Reed II
Fred Jackson
Erwin Goodwin
Ronald (Ace) Allen
JC Farr
Elbert Brown

Honorary Pallbearers

Ronald Dorton Sr.
Ronald Dorton Jr.
Larry Dorton
Eric Dorton
Gary Dorton
Odis McClain
Alcus Dorton
Alma Ray Dorton
Brian Lester
Eldrige Wright

Enter the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

Acknowledgements

The family of Delores Jean Scott-McClain acknowledges with grateful appreciation the many expressions of love evidenced by your prayers, thoughts and deeds during our time of sorrow.

Repass

North Richmond Missionary Baptist church
1427 Fred Jackson Way
Richmond, California